LADIES'

Duck Suits

Elegant Material, Stylish Cut, Broad Revers, Proper Set, Wide Hems, full sweep of Skirt. Nothing mean or skimped. Generous value in every stitch.

Ladies' Duck Suits

White Ground, with Blue Stripes forgotten. The Arch Druid-Clwyd-fardd, a spruce young man of 94 years, appeared in tall headgear resembling a Now $1.79

Dot, Now $2.69 Were $3.75.

Plain Tan, Now $2.98

White Ground, either Blue or Black Figure, Now $3.15

Light Blue Ground, with White Polka Dot, Now $3,25

This value shrinkage is simply awful, and summer only half over.

GORMAN'S

GRAND DEPOT

Mrs. A. D. Copeland, of Nebraska, a former resident here, is now visiting at her cousin's, Mrs. A. I. Ackerly, and other relatives, having been absent for some twenty-five years

Mr. Williams, of Scranton, has purchased four acres of land adjoining F. H. Greene's of N. S. Davis, excounty superintendent, and will erect a residence theron at once.

George Wells and family, of Wilkes-Barre, are spending their vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wells. Howard E. Northup, of Stroudsburg, arrived here on Sunday morning and will spend a short time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Northup, and will make a run to the Falls and Tunk hannock on his wheel, visiting friends

Mr. Mellon and family, of Dunmore, who has been spending a snort time at J. B. Austin's, returned home on Friday evening last. Mrs. Freeman Leach and son, of Chinchilla, called on friends here on E. J. Hinckley has had a very sick horse, but is now much improved.

Mrs. Marcy and daughter, of Duryes, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wheeler, Rev. A. E. Douglass and wife, pastor of the Baptist church, will take a four weeks' vacation, spending their time with his parents and friends in

Mrs O. Chapman gave a birthday party in honor of her daughter. Miss Lean Chapman. Among those present were the Misses Ellen White, of Benton; Christine Parker, of Waverly; Grace Isby, Marian and Evelin Mat-thews, Annie and Lillie Ribble, Iva Catterson, Vida Bostido, Mary Marcy, of Duryea; Carrie and Mary Weils, Mary Stanton, Jessie Mead and Hattie Mead. Presents were in order and several very fine ones received. It was a very enjoyable affair. Rev. F. H. Parsons gave a very able and exhaustive discourse here on Sun-day evening last on the life and character of the founder of Methodism, Rev. John Wesley, to a full audience.

An exciting and interesting game of ball was had on last Saturday afternoon between the Waverly club and the Clark's Summit Hustlers, resulting in sixth inning to 37 to 7 in favor of the Hustlers

Archbald

Tomorrow Archbald Hose company will bold its excursion to Farview. Great preparations have been made for it and judging from the advance sale of tickets it will be very largely attended. Many very interesting features have been arranged. A team from Archbald Hose company will contest in a tug of war with a team from Andrew Mitchell Hose company; there will be a base ball game and many other features that cannot fail to be amus-ing. This evening a grand parade will be held in which all the hose companies in the neighborhood will participate. Every one who can should attend the excursion tomorrow. P. P. Jordan, of Scranton, was in town Sunday.

Misses Mary and Tillie Nealon, of Carbondale, have returned after a pleasant two week's visit with their consin, Miss Sadie Sweeney.

Misses Mamie Brown and Katie Cawley, of Hyde Park, who have been visiting Miss Maggie Judge, of Pine street, have returned home.

My Physician said I could not live, my liver out of order, frequently vomited greenish mucous skin yellow, small dry humors on face, stomach would not retain food. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me. Mrs. Adelaide O'Brien, 372 Exchange street Buffalo, N. Y.

SCRANTON VERSE

Melody and Are Made Glad by Imposing Ceremonials-Details of One of the Epochal Commemorations of the Land of Cambria.

Special Correspondence.

London, July 14
NE more royal national eisteddfod is o'er and royalty has cast its benignant smile on the old land of Cambria and everything still goes on the same. The ancient and historic town of Carnarvon, the birth-place of the first Prince of Wales gave a magnificent reception to its present figure head, and in the old historic Castle square admitted the prince and his family into the mystic circle of the famous Welsh bards. The spectacle was one never to be

Now $1.79

Were $3.

Navy Blue Ground, with White

Dot Now $2.60

Were $3. zette, introduced the prince, who was initiated as "lorwerth Dywysog" (Ed-war', the prince). The princess, introduced by the bishops of Bangor an' St. Asaph as "Hoffder Prydain (Britain's delight), the Princess Victoria, introduced by Lord Peurbyn as "Budduq" (the queen of the Iceni) The prince was more than delighted with the magnificent welcome and expressed his regret that he was not able to reply his regret that he was not able to reply in their own language. SOME EISTEDDFODIC FEATURES.

The eisteddfod was held in the pavilion erected at a cost of $45,000 and often was well filled. A few features worth noting were the "literary Welsh policemen, "carried the literary blue ribbon of the elateddfod for the third time. Charles Ashton, the Dinas Mawddy police officer is a wonderful man having succeeded in vanquishing highly edneated opponents in the essay on "The poems of Iolo Good with historical and critical notes thereon." The priz-

The chief choral contest took place in the presence of 9 000 spectators. The in the presence of 9 000 spectators. The best pieces being Mendelssonn's chorus, "All Men All Things," and J. H. Parry's "Ye Ynys Wen." The adjudicators comprised the flower of the British profession, viz: Caldicoff Emlyn Evans, Penewid Gwalia, J. H. Roberts, and C. F. Lloyd (Æ200). The first prize of $750 was taken by the Rhymney United choir and the second of $125 by the Cardiff Choral union. The supject the Cardiff Choral union. The sunject for the "coronet competition" was 1,000 lines on Lord Tennyson and was won by Rev. Ben Davies, Congregational minister, Ystalyfera, who was crowned with the sliver coronet with great pomp

SURANTON MUSIC SUNG. The second choral competition was the rendition of the glee "Drisyflad y Wawr" a Welsh-American piece the author of the words being D. M. Williams of your city. The prize of $250 being carried off by the Holyhead Harmonic society. Out of the multitude of poems the following are certainly worthy of reproduction. Dy-fed Lewis sang to his highness the Welsh version of "God Bless the Prince

Ar Dwys-o-g gwlad y bryniau O boed ir nefoedd wen Roi iddo, gyda choron, Ei bendith ar et ben. Pan syrthjo'r aur-wialen, Pan elo un ir nef, Y nef a ddalio i fyny, Ei law frenhinol ef. The world famed Lewis Morris then expressed his sentiments to his high-

But who come here! A long expected guest.
After those silent centuries long, A Prince of Wales once more,

As in those unforgotten days of yore And with him smiling comes, gracious, serene,

The fairest mother Cymric eyes have seen, And young lives, too, in whom we joy to Their mother's royal grace.

THE BIG CHOIR COMPETITION The great annual event of the eisteddfod is the "chair competition," the subject of the ode this year being "Self Sacrifice." Amid intense excitement the adjudicators declared that "Aristides" was the successful bard. and the fortunate owner of the nom de plume was requested to stand if present. A moment afterward, a form was seen upstanding, and amidst deafening cheers the well known features of Eivet Lewis, Congregational minister of Llanelly, were recognized. vet" was then conducted by the bards, the eisteddfod band playing, "See the Conquering Hero" Comes," handkerchiefs wildly waving, cheers upon cheer rent the air, and for a few moments the immense pavilion was a pandemonium of noise. Arrived at the great oak chair, the venerable arch-druid formally chaired the bard by declaring "peace" with the uplifted sword and been so impressively enacted amid the wild mountains of Wales. Owen. Would you ride on a railroad that uses no danger signals? That cough is a signal of danger. The safest cure is Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Soid by all dealers on a guarantee of satisfaction.

handing over the chair as a trophy.

Miss Mary Thomas sang the chairing song, "Cymrn Ffydd," and thus closed the chairing scene of 1894; one more added to the hundreds which have Elmhurst. Rev. F. A. Matteson, pastor of the Baptist church, was unable to fill the pulpit Sunday on account of sickness.

Martin Devaney, of Buffalo, N. Y, has been spending a few days with his

Charles Page, who is engaged at Brooklyn, Pa., spent Sunday with his J. M. Rhodes, president of the Elm-burst board of trade, is seriously ill at F. W. Harlow, editor of the Signal, with his family, are occupying their new home on the West Side.

Charles Curtis, a contractor of New York city, is visiting his parents in J. M. Warren is confined to his home with a severe attack of sickness. The Elmhurst board of trade will meet at the schoolhouse tonight. Every member is requested to be present, and all others interested. Mr. Hunt, Miss Maud Atherhold, of Wyoming, day in town.

who has been visiting Miss Addie Snyder, returned hom · Monday .

Miss Jennis Wehrum entertained friends from Scranton over Snuday. SUNG IN WALES

Friends from Scranton over Snaday.

The following are the late arrivals at Hotel Elmhurst: William F. Decker, of, Stroudsburg; Miss Caroline Boardman, of Calais, Me.; Master W. Sanford Mulford, of Montrose; Miss R. na Keen, of Honesalale; Welcome Snover, H. Grace Jenkins, J. Harry Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Horace E. Hand and child, Mrs. W. J. Mulford, Miss Nellie F. Cooke, Miles T. Hand, Miss Anna M. Hand, W. J. Ford and wife, Mrs. Bright, George L. Breck and wife, G. William Breck, Fred J. Amsden and wife, Professor E. E. Sonthworth, Samuel Samter and wife, F. C. Mc-Key, R. Earnest Comegys, of Scranton; J. E. Reynolds, of Brwick, Hermon Bergholtz, of Ithaca, N. Y.

Stroudsburg.

M. E. Miller won the medal at the Gun club shoot at their South Strondsburg grounds Friday afternoon. Eight entered the contest which r-sulted as follows; M. E. Miller, hit 13, missed 2; C. M. Brownell, nit 8, missed 7; W. Coolbaugh, hit 8 missed 7; Milton Lish, hit 7. missed 8; H. W. Kistler, hit 7. missed 8; George W. Born, hit 7. missed 8; J. W. Purrington, hit 6 missed 9; John Hagerty, hit 6, missed 9 A telegram received late Friday af-ternoon from Wells, Minn., stated that Norion Decker's brother, Frank, has taken a favorable turn now and has a slight chance for recovery. A specialist has been sent for and his decision will be made tolay. Harvey A Decker arrivel at Wells Friday. Francis E. Heiler, formerly with John T. Stotz, of Brodheadsville, but now a member of the faculty of the Pierce College of Business in Philadelphia, was in town Thursday. Mrs. Jacob Gunger and two daughters, of Newark, N. J., are the guests of Mayor H. S. Puterbaugh, They had an enjoyable trip to Lake Popon-

Mrs. S A Beeman, of Philadelphia, is viviting friends in this borough, Miss N. Alice Walton left for a visit to her native place, Tom's River, Milton Yetter and family returned from a trip to Niagara Fails and the Thousand Islands. Lawrence Grant left recently for Ionolulu via New York, He will be oined by H. B Bell and wife and Mr.

day morning, when his nose was broken and his right eye severely injured by a kick from a horse. A very pleasant surprise party was given Mrs. Bowden and Mrs. Valenere the oldest in town. During the were the oldest in town. During the evening prayers were offered by the Rev. L. B. Hoffman and C. D. Brodhead. Among the guests were Mrs. Elna Van Buskirk, Mrs. Sally Kintner, Mrs. Ellen Keller, Mrs. Pitts, Mrs. Emily Crook, Miss Mary Burnett, Mrs. John Nixon, Mrs. H. Albert, Miss Albert, Mrs. Albert, Mrs. Steigerwald and Mrs.

Van Buskirk. The lawn festival given under the suspices of the Ladies' Aid society of the East Strondsburg Presbyterian church Friday night was a most successful affair and quite a sum was realized from the sale of refreshments. The lawn was brilliantly lighted and presented a pretty appearance. A large number attended.

Tue blackberry crop will which dried up the vines and berries to To this same cause is attributed the short season of raspberry and the curtailment of the supply of former years.

Arthur Shotwell, of Andover, N. J. s in town the guest of J. A. and J. H. Shotwell. He came by way of Port Jervis, having made the run, forty-two miles, in three hours and eleven minntes. Roe Shotwell returns with him for a week's outing in Jersey.

James H. Goodale, of Middletown, Orange county, N. Y , is in town. He has been visiting Mr. Frutchey, of Fairchild's.

Miss Mary Shepard, president of the Pennsylvania Women's Christian association, who lectured in the Presby-terian church Thursday night, returned last night and delivered a public lec-ture upon the subject of 'Practical Temperance, the Drink Evil and How to Overcome Its Kavages." She appeared at Grand Army of the Republic

Miss Bert Morey, of Stroudsburg, is spending a few weeks at Mount Batnel, the guest of her cousin, Miss Marie Clarence Klaer, of Strondsburg, is in Milford on a two week' visit. Miss Belle Hill left for a visit riends in Burlington, N. J.

John Ingraham and wife, of West-field, N. J., are the guests of George A social dance was given at the residence of Fred Hoffecker in East Stroudsburg. Frank H. Miller is spending his vaation at Pitiston Wickes-Barre and Binghamton.

Carbondale. Eric Railroad company paid their mployes yesterday. Miss Katle Pace is visiting Scranton riends this week. Miss Grace Bagley, of Canaan street, eft Saturday for a visit with friends in Elkdale. Miss Sarah McComb, of Garfield wenue, is visiting her brother, F. E.

McComb, at Scranton, H. C. Butler left yesterday for an exended visit through the eastern states Miss May Ulmer and brother, Arthur, of Wyoming street, are visiting friends in Green Ridge.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!! Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething. with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain; cures wind collc. and is the best remedy for diarrhœa. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no no other kind. Twenty-live cents a bot-

Honesdale.

Mrs. Frank Harms has returned to her home in Reading after a long visit with her parents, Mr. and Mr. Cog-The stock of jewelry of Charles P. Eldred has been purchased by Charles Spencer, who will open up the store until lately occupied by Mr. Eldred, near the postoffice. Mr. Spencer is well known, having formerly been with Charles Petersen. Miss May Courtright, of Hawley, is visiting at the home of George Wood-

Miss Mary E. Box, of Buffalo, and Miss Kate Conklin, of Binghamton, who have been the guests of Miss Holmes, left here yesterday.

Miss Nell Charlesworth, of Scranton,

s visiting her brother, Edward Charles-Mr. Hunt, of Scranton, passed Sun-

Pittston.

After challing the officers for several lays, the Oliver prothers, Caarles and James, who assaulted the man Toolie at Duryes a few evenings ago, were arrested and taken before Squire Gilboy of that place yesterday for a hearing. After hearing testimony, his honor decided to hold the prisoners in $2,000 bail each. John Dilis qualified for the amount in both instances.

The official result of the receipts of the picnic held in Oregon grove, July 4th, by the congregation of St. John's (R. C.) church, shows the church, shows the amount to be $1,114 47.

John G. Bender, of Frothingham street, died at 5 o'clock Sunday evening. He was 60 years old. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock and will be in observed W. A. o'clock, and will be in charge of W. A. Nugent post, Grand Army of the Re-public, No. 245. Department of Pennsylvania, of which the deceased was a member. The services will be conducted at the house and the remains will be interred in Pittston cemetery.

The statement of the Miners' Saying bank, of this place, published under date of July 18, shows the institution to be in a healthy and flourishing con-dition. It shows a surplus and profit account of $106 198 52, and deposits aggregating $935 796.87.

Yesterday and last evening were unusually lively about town in consequence of the circus. The show gave two performances, one in the afternoon and the other in the evening, both of which were well patronized. The performance was good, clean and wnolesome throughout and apparently gave good satisfaction. One of the most in-teresting as well as pleasing features of the performances was the trick manoeuverings of about a dozen dogs. Their anties pleased both old and young alike, and caused frequent out bursts of laughter.

The town council met in special ses-sion in the Town hall last evening for the purpose of considering the paving and sewering of the town and to hear the report of the committee having the opening of the proposed street at the rear of the properties abutting on the east side of Main street. All members were present except Tigue and Kearney. The committee reported favoraconcerning the opening of the street. Communications received from the Sicilian Asphalt company of New York city, Mack Manufacturing company of Pittsburg, and Canton Brick Exchange company of Canton, O., in-John Henneks, an employe of C J. viting eight members of council to Schwarz, of East Strondsburg, met with a painful accident early Satureast and west at their expense, viting eight members of council to were read and immediately accepted. A motion prevailed instructing the secretary to notify the several companies that the council was willing and would be in readiness as soon as the tickets arrived. Borough Solicitor ine, two well known old ladies of this crough. Some of the ladies present Bohan stated for the information of the council that from what he could learn it would cost the borough in the neighborhood of $45,000 for its share of the paving to be done on Main street. Such being the case it was evident that the borough could not at the pres-ent time sewer the town, since it would coat something like $100,000, Mr. Donnelly seeing the disemma the borough was placed in for the lack of funds, stated for the instruction of those present that there were several copitalists of the town ready to organize a company for the purpose and that the company would be willing to put in the sewer at a rate of 6 per cent. interest on the money invested, subject to such conditions as the council might Ball see fit to impose. Mr. Donneily took lessened this season in consequence of as an attorney for any company, the severe drought of the past month neither was he interested any more than he was speaking for the public good. He further stated he was not in favor of any outside company getting the contract while there were large property owners who stood ready to organize a company on the above conditions, the borough to take the full control of the same at each time as it felt the funds would warrant

Mr. Hennigan intimated that the motive back of the scheme was a mercenary one and calculated to enrich the few interested and not the entire borough, as Mr. Donnelly endcavored to make his auditors believe. Mr. Clifford in order to bring the discusion to a close made a motion requesting the capitalists of the town to be present at the next mosting and to decide upon some definite plan. After arranging to meet tomerrow evening the meeting adjourned. A tamp that exploded in the house of Joseph Bryden on Railroad street last evening about 10 o'clock caused an darm of fire to be sounded from box The blaz was extinguished without the aid of the fire companies.

Specimen Cases. S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was froubled with neuralgis and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in fesh and strength. Three bottles of Elec-tric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepberd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Standing, Used three bottles of Electric Editers and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and his leg is ound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had have larze fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica

Dunmore.

On Wednesday evening, August 1, a drama entitled "Ruinel by Drink" will be presented in the Odd Fellows' hall, Dunmore, by members of the Loyal Legion. The proceeds are to be expended for the erection of a drinking fountain at the corners. The fountain will be for the accommodation of mar and beast. Tickets can be obtained at J. G. Bone's drug store or any member of the legion, the admission having been placed at the low price of 20 cents.

Priceburg.

John Toole, the young man who was brutally assaulted by the Oliver brothers at Duryea last week, was a former resident of this place. His parents are esiding here at present.

Harry Norris and family, who have een residents of this town for several years, left last Friday for New York where they will embark on the first available steamer for England on an biliousness, bilious headache, dyspepsia, heartburn, torpid liver, dizziness, sick headache, bad taste in the mouth. coated tongue, loss of appetite, sallow skin, when caused by constipation; and constipation is the most frequent extended visit to friends in their native

Martin Neary, form-rly of this town but now of Wilkes-Barre, spent the Sabbath with friends in town.

Sabbath with friends in town.

The Delaware and Hudson depot was burglarized again on Friday night and a case of men's shoes stolen.

Miss Annie Owens, of Honesdale, who has been on a visit to relatives here, returned home on Monday.

A large delegation of our fire laddies attended the picnic at Throop, for the benefit of the fire company which has been organized in that new and thriving borough.

ing borough.

Reese M. Thomas, of Plymouth, spent the past few days as the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Isaac Davis, of Hallstead

Mrs. Joseph Archer, of Scranton, called on friends in town yesterday.

Taylor.

Miss Annie Beseicker leaves tomorow morning for Massachusetts to p rmanently reside. At the meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday night resolutions were adopted wishng ber abundant success.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Welsh Congregational church is preparing to hold a fair at an early date. Isaac Benjamin and Elias Evans, of Forest City, were in town on Saturday

Taylorville lodge, No. 462, Kaights of Pythias, will picnic today at Web-

The Electrics, of Taylor, will play the Unions, of Hyde Park, on the grounds back of the graded school house on Wednesday afternoon. It is hoped the home team will put up the article of ball they are capable of doing, and not play the listless game they did last Friday.

Edward D. Davis, of Middle street, was surprised on Friday night, the oc-casion being his twenty-third birthday anniversary. Refreshments were served at 11 o'clock, games were played, and all parted for their homes at an early hour highly elated at the excellent time provided, Thomas Evans, a young man of this town, preached at the Calvary Baptist church on Sunday night.

Rsy Morgans entertained a number of her friends last night, Mrs. John A. Johes and daughter Ella are home from Ocean Grove. The cierks of this borough went to Jermyn last Friday and were left to El McLaughlin and Patrick Joyce will run a foot race this after-noon on the Scranton Driving park for $100 a side, distance 100 yards.

Peckville.

Mrs. Nora Pickering has returned from visiting friends at Susquehanna. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Kumble, of Carbondale, spent Sunday with friends

John Jayne, of Nanticoke, and Miss Esther Bonfielt, of Hyde Park, were the guests of Miss Lizzie and William Swales last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. William Sykes, of

Green Ridge, visited with the latter's aunt, Mrs. P. Snedicor, last Sunday, Mrs. Edward Davis and Mrs. John Powell, of Taylor, called on Mrs, Abner Davis here yesterday, Mrs. Primer and Mrs. Jeffers, of Scranton, visited with Mrs. Henry Oberts last Sunday. Manager Swift, of the Scranton Base Ball club, was a visitor in town yester-M. Biglow, of Niagara, and C. K. Biglow, of Scranton, spent Sanday as the guests of Mr. and

Mrs. E. H. Barber, of Main street, Mrs. Brown, of North street, is dangerously ill with neuralgia of the Charles Craig and wife have commenced housekeeping at Bell place in one of William Bell's houses. Mrs. Russell and daughter Minnie, spent Sunday at R. J. Wren's, on North Main street.

Mrs. John Stevens and daughter

Clara, of North street, who have been visiting the former's friends in Eng land and Wales, arrived home last Saturday evening and report that it rained most of the time they were They spent two months bethere. tween the above places. William O. Berts has had electric

All That's Claimed

"I had a poor appetite, that tired feeling and done me a great deal of appetite and do not feel tired. I can rec-bells put in his house.

to keep the blood in order. Myself and three daughters have taken over six bottles. and it has done us much good. We do not now have to call upon a doctor, as for-/ merly, in the spring

ommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as an excellent

Albert Kinsey time, and I can say that Auburn, Pa. Hood's Sarsaparilla is all that is claimed for it. I most heartily recommend it, and shall always keep it in my house." ALBERT KINSEY, Auburn, Pa.

ood's Sarsa-Leccoo Be sure to get ures HOOD'S Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, and do

DUPONT'S

MINING, BLASTING AND SPORTING

POWDER

Beecham's pills are for HENRY BELIN, Jr.

General Agent for the Wyoming District. 118 Wyoming Ave., Third National Bank Building.

MR. FRED WEICHEL

Cause of all of them.

Book free; pills 25c. At drugstores, or write B.F. Allen Co., 365 Canal St., New York.

At his newly-renovated and Heensed Hotel at CLARK'S SUMMIT, is now prepared to furnish traveling men and social parties with the LATEST, NEW-STYLED RIGS, single or double, to take them to I ake Winola, Gravel Pond and all suburban points and Summer resorts at reasonable priese. A large livery barn connected with notel for traveling public.

GREAT

Handkerchief Purchase

THE FAIR

400 and 402 Lackawanna Avenue.

E have just purchased for cash at 50c. on the dollar 32,228 doz. Ladies' Handkerchiefs, the entire stock of an importing house retiring from business.

Sale Commences Saturday, July 7

5c. Handerchiefs, sale at 10c. Handkerchiefs, sale at . 15c. Handkerchiefs, sale at . 25c. Handkerchiefs, sale at . 39c. Handkerchiefs, sale at . 19c. 50c. Handkerchiefs, sale at .

THE FAIR

400-402 LACKAWANNA AVE.

IF YOU ARE THINKING OF

NEW CARPETS

We can serve you well. All the desirable kinds are here and at right prices. Then we have other kinds of

Floor: Coverings

Linoleums, Mattings, Art Squares, Linen Crumb Cloths, &c.

RUGS! RUGS

Byzantine, Smyrna and Orient Rugs all sizes, from a single door t sizes large enough to cover an entire

KERR & SIEBECKER

406 and 408 Lacka. Avenue.

BRANCH STORE: Watt Building, Carbondale.

No tales or history goes with the goods we sell at our Odd and End Sale You will find money by attending our Odd and End Sale It is cheap goodness-not cheap cheapness-that distinguishes our

Odd and End Sale

Figures are eloquent when used to indicate the value we are giving at our Odd and End Sale From a critical inspector you will turn an eager buyer at our Odd and End Sale Goods marked in plain, large, low figures

Odd and End Sale

